

McMANUS-McGURK WEDDING RITES PERFORMED AT NATIVITY CHURCH

Patricia Arlene McManus, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat K. McManus, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, November 24, with Floyd Francis McGurk at the Nativity Catholic church.

In one of the most exquisite gowns this season, she was led to the altar by her father where Reverend P. J. McGuinness performed the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a white satin floor length sheath creation with thick folds of net over the skirt. The unique bodice had a lace jacket with lace-pointed sleeves and a stand up collar. The gown was accentuated by a satin waistband encrusted with pearls. Her pearl crown was held in place by a fingertip tulle veil and she carried a white prayer book complemented by gardenias and stephanotis.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Maureen Martin, sister of the bride, carried yellow chrysanthemums and wore a champagne satin dress with a matching net waistband and headpiece. The three attendants wore identical gowns with the exception of the waist bands and head pieces which were pink. They carried pink chrysanthemums.

Frances Frisini, Shirley Dornoff, and Jackie Pailles, preceded the matron of honor in the wedding procession, and Giacomo Martin was the best man. Bill Trueblood, Torrance; Ned Latta, Florida; and Joe Fournier, Massachusetts; ushered the guest to their seats.

Harry Hamilton was the soloist accompanied by organist, Mrs. Neal McConologue. Lou McManus, sister of bride, was in charge of the guest book at the reception held at the bride's home, 3510 228th st.

The bride is a 1955 graduate of Torrance high school after attending school in California, Pennsylvania. She is presently employed at Ramo Woolridge corp. The groom graduated
